MapLight does not typically give grants. Our only grantee is the League of Women Voters of California Education Fund, with whom we work closely on a joint project, Voter's Edge California. Our grant to them supported expenses they incurred taking on a more significant portion of the outreach to under-served communities aspect of that joint work. We are able to closely and continuously monitor that work because it is part of our joint project.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Money and Influence: MapLight is a nonpartisan nonprofit that strives to create a government that (actually) works for the people. By connecting the influence of special interest groups to the issues people care about, we empower journalists, citizens, and advocacy groups to hold government accountable. Since 2009, our findings illustrating the impact of political money on the issues affecting citizens' everyday lives have reached over 350 million people through TV, radio, magazines, newspapers, blogs, and other websites. From our exposé that led the governor of New Mexico to change statewide policy on investment decisions, to our investigation that led major corporations to halt their contributions to a racist dark money organization - and many other investigations like this - our work has invigorated the national debate, empowered accountability advocates, and changed public policy. In the past year, we've expanded our work to begin shining a light on "digital deception" (the manipulation of public opinion and political processes via social media and other digital technologies) and develop meaningful policy and technological solutions. In October, we also launched a powerful new Campaign Contribution Search tool, making it easy for journalists, researchers, and citizens to explore patterns of influence on our government.
